

For me, one of the most important issues not being dealt with is coverage for mental health treatment. Mental health medications are now excluded from Healthy NY plans. This leaves many insured's without the coverage they need the most. These medications can be expensive but not all are and some do now have generic alternatives.

Sincerely;
Dena Schlee